Round Barns / Dairy Farm Historic District

Upon its chartering February 28, 1867, the Illinois Industrial University became a model of the Land Grant University, transforming the "treeless prairie" into a world-renowned agricultural and engineering school. Built between 1907 and 1913, the three Round Barns anchored the 20-acre dairy demonstration farm and were added to the Historic Register in 1994.

Illini Union

Acting as the second home to students for more than 50 years, the Illini Union holds fond memories for many an alum. In testament to its importance in student life, at its 10th anniversary, Alfred Bonds declared "I would venture to say that there has been far more philosophy of life learned over coffee or cokes at the Union than has come out of many of our philosophy classrooms."

English Building

Dedicated October 16, 1905, the Women's Building shared its dedication with the installation of incoming UI President Edmund James James and was one of the earliest women's dormitories on campus. In 1947 it was renamed Bevier Hall until completion of the new Bevier Hall in 1956, at which time it was renamed to the English Building.

About This Calendar

The contents of this calendar were compiled from the UIPhotos and UIHistories projects, by Kalev Leetaru.

All photos and text copyright 2006, Kalev Leetaru.

UIPhotos Project

<http://uiphotos.ncsa.uiuc.edu/>

The UIPhotos project is a collection of more than 60,000 images of the UIUC campus, taken by Kalev Leetaru. These images, which cover every building and space on campus, provide a uniquely powerful visual time capsule of campus in the early 21st century. Images on the site are free for personal download and non-commercial UI use. The site also features wallpapers, screen savers, eCards, calendars, and other UIUC-themed photo products for free download.

UIHistories Project

<http://uihistories.ncsa.uiuc.edu/>

The UIHistories project, which was Kalev Leetaru's senior undergraduate thesis, is the first comprehensive historical survey of the UIUC campus, covering the foundations of the University, offering insights into early student life, and providing historical biographies of all of the buildings, class gifts, memorials, and collections of campus.

UITours Project

<http://uitours.ncsa.uiuc.edu/>

The UITours project brings the UIPhotos and UIHistories projects together to lead visitors upon a visual and historical tour of campus. The site serves as an introspective looking glass onto campus, reflecting on all that makes up this incredible institution.
