

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS
PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

November 24, 1914

My dear Sir:

The Trustees of the University of Illinois will lay the cornerstone of the Addition to the Commerce Building on Illinois Day, Tuesday, December 3, 1914 at three o'clock in the afternoon.

The University of Illinois is making a special effort to answer the needs of the community for well trained young men to engage in the various branches of business enterprise.

I am extending to you and through you to the members of your Association a cordial invitation to attend the exercises connected with the cornerstone laying. Your presence will be a material assistance to the cause, which I am sure you and your colleagues have at heart.

Faithfully yours,

Edmund J. James

Inc.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

November 24, 1914

My dear Sir:

The Trustees of the University of Illinois will lay the cornerstone of the Addition to the Commerce Building on Illinois Day, Tuesday, December 3, 1914 at four p.m. A brief statement about the building is enclosed. The Trustees would be pleased if you or a representative of your paper can attend these exercises.

Faithfully yours,

Edmund J. James

Inc.