ODE,
WRITTEN FOR THE OCCASION.

Learning and Labor.

OWN the line of struggling ages,
Swells the cry for truth and light,
Wrung from bosoms of the peoples,
Dimly yearning for the right.
Toiling millions, bravely bearing
All the burdens of the day,
Supplicate the ear all-hearing,
For to labor is to pray.

Down the line of ages flaming,
Glow the kindling fires of thought ;
Flashing 'neath the stroke of hammers,
Light, as well as iron, is wrought
And the mighty schools of labor,
With their problems deep and stern,
Educate the toiling peoples,
For to labor is to learn.

Thus the Father's wisdom giveth
Answer, from the prayer out-wrought :
From the furrowed fields of labor
Come the harvest sheaves of thought ;
And from out the line of ages,
Gleams the truth of Christly birth—
Learning, incarnate in labor,
Shall regenerate the earth.

Then to labor and to learning
Let us consecrate these halls :
Lo ! they come as God's strong angels
Bringing light and breaking thralls ;
Kindling in us hopes supernal
Of a glorious coming time,
When the love and might eternal
Shall work out God's will sublime.
