Regarding Rules for Illness and Absence from Classes

For Undergraduate Women Students

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

*All Illnesses Must Be Reported
According to the Following Rules:*

In order to safeguard the health of the students and the community it is necessary to comply with the following rules:

1. The first day a woman student is ill, the chaperon or housemother shall see the girl in person and report the illness and the nature of the illness to the Health Service Station. Phone 7-1702.

2. If the student is still ill on the second day, she herself shall report to the Health Service Station in person, or she shall call or see a local physician.

3. No girl who is ill for more than a day shall remain in her house unless it can be arranged for her to room alone and have no visitors except for medical attention.

4. Women students who live in their own homes in town shall observe rules 1 and 2.

JOIN THE HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION WITHIN THREE WEEKS AFTER REGISTRATION. IT IS A GOOD HEALTH INVESTMENT.

*Absences May Be Excused
According to the Following Rules:*

1. Excuses for absences for all undergraduate women students are issued by the office of the Dean of Women. No excuses are issued for absences of less than half a day.

2. In the following cases women students should report immediately to the Assistant Dean of Women for excuse for absence:

a. If they have been ill in a local hospital.

b. If the reason for their absence is anything other than illness.

3. All women who have been ill in their rooms should report within 24 hours to the Woman's Health Service Station. The statement from the Health Service Station should be brought within a week to the office of the Dean of Women for the regular excuse. Otherwise the excuse is not issued.

4. Hospital discharge slips must be brought within a week to the office of the Dean of Women for the regular excuse. Otherwise the excuse is not issued.

5. Excuses issued by the office of the Dean of Women for absences in Physical Education must be presented at the Physical Education office not later than one week after the absence. Otherwise the excuse is not recorded.
