

ANNOUNCEMENT

OF

FORMAL OPENING

OF NEW

LABORATORY OF PHYSICS

OF THE

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

November 26-27, 1909

URBANA-CHAMPAIGN, ILLINOIS

PROGRAM

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1909.

2 p. m. Physics Lecture Room, PRESIDENT JAMES Presiding.

Presentation of Building with Address by
HON. CHARLES S. DENEEN,
Governor of Illinois.

Acceptance by HON. W. L. ABBOTT,
President of Board of Trustees.

Charge to the Department of Physics by PRESIDENT EDMUND J. JAMES.

Response by A. P. CARMAN, Professor of Physics.

Dedicatory Address, by PRESIDENT
PRITCHETT of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of University Teaching.

4 p. m. Inspection of the Building.

8 p. m. Physics Lecture Room, DEAN W. F. M.
Goss Presiding.

The American Physical Society and the Illinois Academy of Sciences, special guests at this meeting.

Address by PROF. DAVID KINLEY, Dean of the Graduate School.

Address by PROF. ARTHUR G. WEBSTER of Clark University, Past-President of the American Physical Society.

An informal social gathering for guests at the University Club after the addresses.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1909.

9 a. m. Physics Lecture Room, President of the American Physical Society Presiding.

Regular Scientific meeting of the American Physical Society.

12:30 p. m. Lunch for guests at University Club.

Professor Webster will give a series of lectures during the week beginning November 29th in continuation of the formal opening. A special program of these lectures will be issued later.