December 1, 1916

To the Members
Of the Faculty:

On the 7th of December the new Ceramic Engineering building of the University of Illinois will be dedicated. The program of exercises connected with this dedication will begin at 8 P. M. Wednesday, December 6th, in the Auditorium, followed by a program in the Auditorium on Thursday morning, December 7th, from 8:30 until noon. The dedication session will begin at 2:30 P. M. in the University Auditorium.

A full program of the exercises will be sent to you by the Dean of the College of Engineering.

This is an important event in the life of the University. The interest of each session would be heightened by your presence, and I trust you will help us to make this a memorable occasion so far as you can, consistent with your other duties.

Faithfully yours,

EDMUND J. JAMES
