GREETING

1912/13

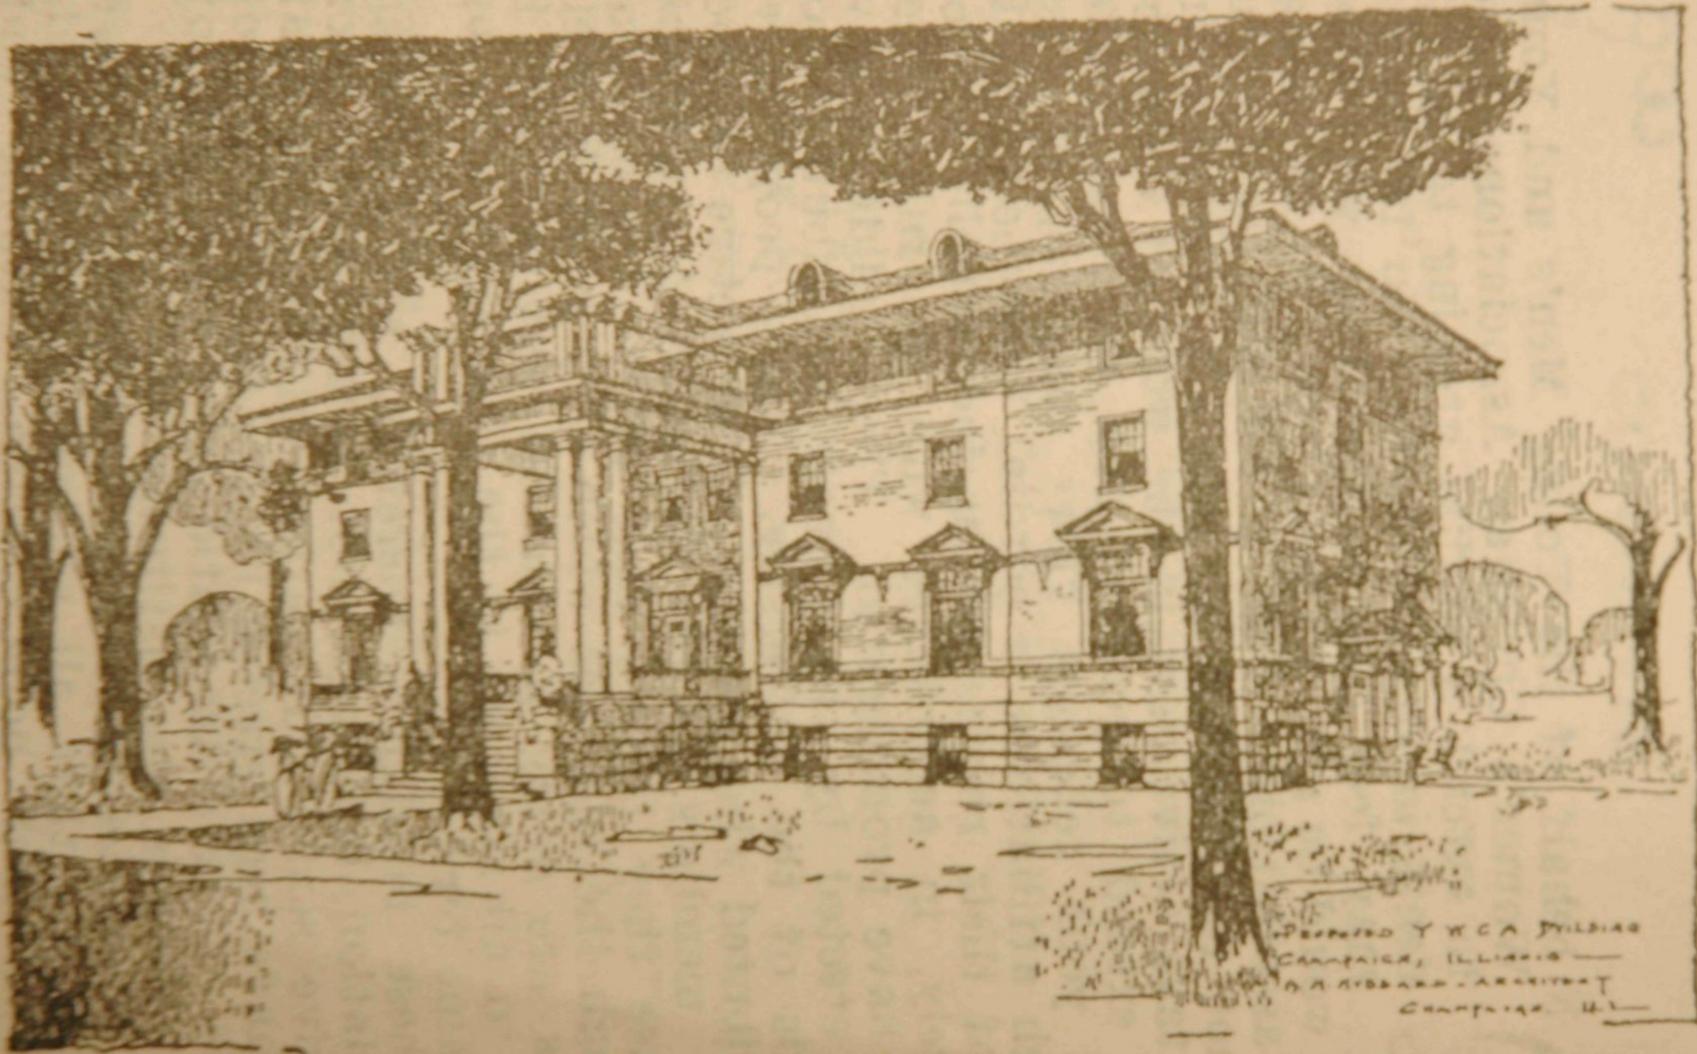

cop. 2

ON behalf of the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations, I beg to extend a cordial greeting to all students in the University. So far as you may feel like co-operating with them they would be glad to have you join the respective associations. But, if for any reason, you do not feel inclined to join the organizations and take active part in the work of the same, they extend to you at any rate, no matter what your religious views may be, or your church affiliations, a cordial welcome to make use of their rooms, either individually or collectively, in accordance with the rules which they have promulgated. These buildings have been erected by the private contributions of friends of the University. Many people have contributed who are not, either active or associate, members of the Christian Associations, because they believe that these organizations through the facilities which they offer in their homes are doing a valuable service which is open to all students in the University alike on the same terms.

These buildings, therefore, are Christian Association buildings, not in any narrow or exclusive sense, but rather in the sense that they have been erected by the contributions of friends of these Associations for the benefit of all students in the institution.

It is earnestly desired, therefore, by these Associations that all students, new and old, Christian and non-Christian, Catholic and Protestant alike, may feel entirely free to avail themselves of their privileges.

[Signed] EDMUND J. JAMES,
President University of Illinois.

WHEN YOU COME

Members of the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations will meet all trains during the opening days and will be glad to show you to the University. If you do not see them take a car and come directly to the Association Hall, immediately west of the Library, corner of Wright and John streets, where you will be made welcome and where you can secure all desired information. Here you will find a list of rooming and boarding places, and escorts to help you find them. Also a list of persons desiring to employ student help. Also a check room for your suit cases, lavatory conveniences and everything which could possibly minister to your comfort.

REGISTRATION

If you have a formal permit to register, signed by the Registrar, carefully follow its directions. If you have not such a permit go to the second floor of Natural History Building and get one. Attention to these suggestions will save you serious inconvenience.

ASK FOR INFORMATION

Chief among the utilities of the Association during the opening days is to answer just such questions as you may be hesitant about asking for fear they may betray your scant knowledge of University life. Don't be afraid to ask for information or help in any perplexity which may come to you. Make yourself perfectly at home in the Association Hall. Do not wait for others to make all the advances toward fellowship. Many hundreds will be in the building during the opening days who, like you, are here for the first time. Show yourself friendly.

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Young Men's Christian Association has occupied a place of increasing importance in student life. Since its organization in 1873, it has furnished the only distinctly interdenominational religious influence among the men of the University. Its facilities have constantly increased for service until there is probably no student association in this country exerting a larger influence.

Object

The aim of the Young Men's Christian Association is as follows:—to promote a spirit of Christian fellowship among the students; to offer a rendezvous where the atmosphere will be wholesome and refining; to counteract influences which tend to the disintegration of character; to assist men in choosing a helpful course in Bible study and in maintaining their interest in it; to present the claims of Jesus Christ upon the life of every man; to enlist men for and relate men to the great work of Christ that awaits them in the world.

Supervision

The supervision and extension of the work is in the hands of the Cabinet and the Board of Directors. The Cabinet is composed of the secretaries, the officers of the Association, the council and the committee chairmen.

The following is the present Cabinet:

The University was here before you came.
And will probably be here after you leave.

Character is what a man is in the dark.

Board of Directors

The real property and the endowment fund of the Association is administered by the Board of Directors. This board is made up of four members of the faculty, five students, two citizens of the Twin Cities, and an alumnus of the University. The following is the present board:

Dr. T. J. Burrill, Chairman; J. A. Hunter, Clerk; Professor I. O. Baker, Professor S. W. Parr, Dean T. A. Clark, R. F. Little, Mayor F. H. Boggs, S. K. Hughes, D. R. Hull, T. A. Fritchey, E. G. Hersman and G. B. Ruby.

Membership

Every man in the University, whether a member of the student body or of the Faculty, is eligible to membership in the Association and is urged to join. Every man will be asked to make a contribution toward the support of the Association, one dollar of which will pay his membership dues. Under the present administration there are no special privileges accorded members such as reduction in the price of games. Non-members are as courteously received and as cordially welcomed in Association Hall as members. The contribution, therefore, has come to be considered only an opportunity for the university man courteously to express his appreciation of favors extended rather than in payment of specific club privileges.

Social

It is the aim of the Social Department to offer Association Hall as a center of the social activities of University men. The building is open to all men at all times. It is a place where they may meet on a common basis and feel free of the somewhat groundless social distinctions which often exist in academic life.

As President James has said in his greeting, "many people have contributed to these buildings who are not, either active or associate, members of the Christian Associations because they believe that these organizations through the facilities which they offer in their houses are doing a valuable service which is open to all students in the University alike on the same terms."

The Association wishes to emphasize that statement. Association Hall is considerably more than a club house for the men who room in its dormitories or profess active interest in its activities. Its benefits and privileges are extended cheerfully to every University man, whether a member of the Association or not. Frequent social functions will be given during the year and there will be something interesting happening every night during the opening days.

Bible Study

The Bible Study department of the Young Men's Christian Association aims to help every man in the University to a course in Bible Study suitable to the needs of a college man and which may help to conserve those qualities essential to the building of a strong character. The courses will be led by members of the Faculty, ministers and the secretaries, thus offering a diversity of courses. Classes will meet in Association Hall, churches, student rooms, club houses and fraternity houses. During the opening days a canvass will be made of the University community by members of the Bible Study Committee to secure enrollments in these courses. In order that their task may be facilitated, it is hoped that incoming students will have looked over the list of courses outlined here so that they will be prepared to inform the committeeman promptly on this point.

Bible Study Courses

- "The Will of God."
- "Life of Christ."
- "New Studies in Acts."
- "Life of Paul."
- "Introducing Men to Christ."

Meetings

Through the coming year it shall be the policy of the Association to hold Sunday afternoon meetings in its Auditorium at the rate of two per month instead of every Sunday afternoon as formerly. These meetings will be addressed by specialists in religious and moral problems, particularly in their distinctive appeal to University men.

The list of speakers for the ensuing year, to be published later, will include some noted names. Last December a series of special meetings led by Dr. John R. Mott, assisted by ten men prominent in religious work elsewhere, were attended by an average of 1,500 men each night and resulted in a University-wide renewal of interest in moral and religious topics. It has been referred to by religious experts as the most important religious movement among the students in any American University in modern times. Negotiations are now pending for the securing of a noted speaker for a similar series of lectures on religious and moral problems in December of this year.

Get into the game somewhere. Don't be a rooter always.

Every Thursday evening during the First Semester, special meetings will be held in the Lounging Room of Association Hall where brief illustrated lectures will be given pertaining to specific forms of Christian service in mines, mills, logging camps, immigration stations, etc.

Extension Work

Believing that it should extend its influence into the local and outlying communities, the Association has a special department organized for the conduct of this work. "Gospel Teams," composed of five or six men each, visit small towns during Christmas and Easter holidays promoting a "Campaign of Friendship" among men and boys. Industrial classes, led by students under the auspices of this department, are conducted in many of the factories and mills of Champaign and Urbana with great success and benefit. Classes in English for foreigners are also conducted in the railroad yards.

Missions

Missionary activities have taken their place among the greatest romantic and adventuresome agencies of our time. The fact that the missionary problem is nothing more or less than the development of the social, intellectual, political, industrial and religious life of the greater part of the world's population makes it a subject to challenge the attention and interest of every student who is pleased to refer to himself as "a University man." Plans for missionary instruction through the coming year are somewhat larger than ever before. There have already been selected a list of leaders of mission classes who will undoubtedly make this a popular cause.

Mission Study Courses

- "The Decisive Hour."
- "Christianity and the Social Crisis."
- "Unoccupied Mission Fields."
- "The Challenge of the City."
- "Industrial Problems."

Volunteer Band

The Volunteer Band, organized under the Student Volunteer Movement, is composed of those of the local community who plan to spend their lives in Christian service in foreign lands. Weekly devotional meetings are held, where questions of interest to such students are discussed, and where plans are laid by which the University may make a more adequate contribution to the needs of the non-Christian world. Because there is opportunity in such work for persons of widely differing tastes and talents, students from all departments of the University are among the number. The membership of the Band consists of both men and women students, and many have gone out from its number to practically every non-Christian country.

Foreign Secretary

The Association contributes largely to the support of Mr. P. A. Conard in South America. Mr. Conard graduated from the University in 1901 and was General Secretary here for three years. The spirit with which he served men was an inspiration to those who knew him. A good many men are leading different lives now because they knew Conard. He is now General Secretary of the Association at Montevideo, Uruguay, South America.

The Retiring General Secretary

It will be of interest to new students to know that Mr. W. A. McKnight, '04, who retires as General Secretary of the Association and to whom a large amount of the success of the Association in recent years may be attributed, goes to Buenos Aires, South America, to become the Religious Work Director in the Association there.

The Employment Department

One of the most important phases of the activity of the Young Men's Christian Association is the employment department. Several men devote a considerable amount of time both before and during the opening days of school in locating positions that may be filled by students. Some of this work is permanent and may continue throughout the year, or for several years; other positions are but temporary. No fee is charged, but men may be asked to make a small deposit when they go to fill a call for work; this deposit, if it is required, will be refunded when the men comply with the Association's reasonable requests for reports.

It has been found impracticable, in most cases, for the department to try to locate men in positions in advance; for a great many fail to appear. Then, too, an employer knows there will be plenty of men who want work, and prefers to hire a man who is on the ground to one whom he has never seen. So men who must earn a part or all of their expenses are urged to arrive a week or ten days before the opening of University. For any further information, address Employment Department, Association Hall, Champaign, Illinois.

The Geneva Conference

"More than half our trouble is not that we are poor builders, but that we do not make the ground plan large enough." It is to help all men in discovering the fundamental truths that the Lake Geneva Conference is held. The inspiring gatherings of 500 college men from over 200 colleges and universities of the middle west, the contact with many of the foremost leaders in religious thought, the friendships formed, the delightful afternoons spent in athletics, sports, excursions or rambles, and the hallowed hours of personal study and meditation—all have combined to make Geneva a sacred spot to thousands of men of the middle west.

The conference lasts for ten days. Each day has a definite schedule of exercises; the morning is given over to Bible classes, Mission classes, discussions of Association problems, and platform addresses. The afternoons are spent entirely in athletics and recreation. All sorts of sports are available—baseball, tennis, golf, field and track work and water sports. Canoeing and boating are especially attractive. The evening is devoted to a lake front meeting on some subject connected with life work, and to delegation conferences or platform meetings. Every University student ought to consider it an essential part of his training to go to Geneva at least once during his course, and that as early as possible. From twenty to thirty men from the University of Illinois attend each year. It is difficult to explain in writing just what Geneva means. Ask about it and become acquainted with the facts and you'll want to go. You cannot afford to miss it. From the educational standpoint ten days' outing and conference at Lake Geneva is worth infinitely more than it costs in time and money.

The Association Building

The students of the University may be justly proud of having one of the finest student Y. M. C. A. buildings in the world. It is complete in every department, being especially adapted to the use of the student body. Everything that makes for the betterment of the man, physically, intellectually and spiritually, everything that can add to the pleasure and comfort of the student, so far as practicable, has found a place in the construction of Association Hall. As it stands the building and equipment is worth $120,000. All of this is offered with unrestrained liberality to the uses of the young men of the University.

The building is three stories high, besides a basement floor. This lower compartment contains a barber shop, an up-to-date restaurant and lunch room, janitor's living room, boiler rooms, store rooms and four standard bowling alleys.

The first floor is particularly given over to the use of the public. It houses the large lobby, the game room with its two billiard tables and one pool table besides numerous other games, the immense lounging room furnished with large comfortable chairs and settees, equipped much as a cozy private parlor in mission style, the library and writing room, check room, offices, auditorium with a capacity of 450 seats, and the ladies' reception room.

The building above the first floor is divided into three sections by fire walls, with no connection between. Five of the sections, two on the second floor and three on the third floor, are devoted to dormitory rooms for University men. The rooms are finished complete and each section has its shower baths. In the middle section of the second floor are eight organization rooms intended for use of general University organizations, Bible classes, Cabinet and Board of Directors.

The furniture throughout, except that on the porch and in the Ladies' Reception Room, is of mission style and is fumed oak finish. The lounging and game rooms both contain large fire places. The Ladies' Reception Room is furnished in fibre rush and is exceedingly attractive. The building is equipped with an inter-communicating telephone system with a 'phone in nearly every room.

This simply gives a few of the facts, the building must be seen and used to be appreciated. It belongs to us. Both new and old students are its owners and beneficiaries. It will be useful to us, however, only as we make use of it. Every student on the campus is urged to make use of Association Hall.

Zeal without knowledge is frenzy.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Young Women's Christian Association of the University of Illinois has come to occupy a very important place in the affairs of the women students. It is the only distinctly interdenominational religious organization among the women of the student body and its influence is wholesome, aggressive and democratic.

The Association stands for:

- Growth along spiritual lines.
- Training for Christian service.
- Furthering a cordial spirit of friendliness.
- Serving the needs of the girls in practical ways.
- Extension of the Association activities and privileges.

Supervision

The work of the Association is in charge of the Secretaries, the Cabinets and the Advisory Board.

Secretaries

Miss Elizabeth B. Curry is the General Secretary of the Association and Mr. Lloyd C. Douglas the Religious Work Director.

Cabinets

The officers and chairmen of the various committees compose the first cabinet. The cabinet meets each week for prayer and for discussion of the vital problems of the Association. A "Know Your City" department has been added this year.

The first cabinet is as follows:

Labor to keep alive in your breast that little spark of celestial fire—conscience.

The Advisory Board

The Advisory Board is composed of two Faculty members, the wives of two Faculty men, one Champaign woman, one Urbana woman, two resident and two non-resident alumnae members, the President, the Treasurer and the General Secretary of the Association. The work of the Association is referred to the Board for approval and advice.

The members are:

Mrs. H. H. Stoek, Chairman

Mrs. W. F. Goss	Miss Isabel Jones
Miss Isabel Bevier	Miss Keturah Sim
Mrs. Mary E. Fawcett	Miss Grace Parminter
Mrs. R. R. Mattis	Miss Elizabeth Curry

Headquarters

The Association is looking forward to having its new home located on the corner of Wright and John streets, opposite the campus. Through the successful efforts of the students and other interested friends, the provisional amount of $15.00 required to claim the $20,000 gift and the $15,000 loan of Hon. William B. McKinley has been raised. It is hoped that the funds for equipment and necessary expenses can be secured during the coming year. The new building will contain the usual offices, assembly, social and reading rooms on the first floor, dormitories to accommodate fifty girls on the second and third floors, with dining room and kitchen in the basement. It is expected that the new house will be begun during the summer months.

Idleness is the refuge of weak minds and the holiday of fools.

During the building process, the headquarters of the Association will be in the Woman's Building, where the Association interests will be centered. The General Secretary will be glad to welcome and become personally acquainted with each girl.

Meetings

One regular meeting is held each week on Thursday afternoon. These meetings will be announced in detail by posters in prominent places about the University buildings and by notices in "The Illini." The General Secretary will address the first Thursday meeting.

Membership

Girls who are members of Evangelical churches are eligible to active membership in the Association; all other girls may be associate members with all of the privileges excepting that of holding certain offices. The membership fee is one dollar a year. Last year there were 236 members.

Bible and Mission Study

Bible and Mission Study are important departments. Everyone should take advantage of these classes as they are led by some of the strongest people of the University community. During the past year 352 girls have been enrolled in Bible Study. Next year the following courses will be offered:

- Modern Religious Problems, Mr. Lloyd C. Douglas.
- Principles and Practice of Prayer, Mr. Lloyd C. Douglas.
- Old Testament Characters, Miss May Rolfe.

Whoever is in a desperate hurry shows that the thing he is about is too big for him.

Life of Christ, Miss Elizabeth Curry. There will also be a sorority class led by the Dean of Women.

One hundred and twenty girls were enrolled the past year in Mission Study classes. The plan of United Mission Study will be repeated, the two Associations cooperating with five of the churches in offering several courses which will be announced later. The two Association classes this year will be:

Immigration, Miss Vida Collins.

Development of the Young Women's Christian Association, Miss Elizabeth Curry.

Social

It is the wish of the Association to bring the girls together often for good social times. The friendships a girl forms are one of the most valuable parts of her college life. Association girls are worth knowing. Watch for announcements of the social affairs to be given during the year. A reception to the "new girls" will be given by the "old girls" on the afternoon of the first Saturday, September 21. New girls are urged to improve this early opportunity to get acquainted.

Employment Bureau

Through the Employment Committee, girls who desire to earn part of their expenses are assisted so far as possible to secure suitable employment in the University community. During the past year women students were enabled by this means to earn more than $1,500.

There is a certain dignity to be maintained in pleasures as well as in business.

Rooms

The task of providing rooms for girls has been assigned to a standing committee. This committee works with the Dean of Women in attempting to improve the condition of rooming houses and in recommending only those houses which meet the requirements. New girls will be met at the train and escorted to the Association Headquarters, where the committee will be glad to assist them in getting located.

Lake Geneva

One of the most interesting and helpful experiences of college life is that of spending ten days at Lake Geneva at the summer conference. The inspiring services, the contact with religious workers, the friendships formed, the pleasant recreation in the woods and on the water combine to make the conference a lasting inspiration. Twenty girls attended from "Illinois" last year.

A man's own good breeding is his best security against other people's ill manners.

PASTORS' GREETING

The pastors of the Twin Cities on behalf of the churches extend to you their most cordial greetings and welcome. Our churches and our homes are at your service. We regard it as our high duty and joy to minister to the students who make this community their temporary home. This invitation and offer includes you. If we can in any way be of service to you, command us.

Start right. Get in line at once with the religious forces of the new community. Avoid waiting until the close of your college course. Such a delay may be disastrous to your highest interests. Affiliate yourself with the church of your choice and there abide. Do not try to absorb all the churches, or become a church tramp. For the sake of your future religious usefulness it is well at once to practice the habit of church attendance and activity. Begin to do it now. Such fellowship will be not least among the influences that remain.

Without the loss of time introduce yourself to the pastor of the church of your choice. It will encourage him and may help you. We do not wish to intrude needlessly upon the time of a busy student, but if it is learned that a call is desired, it will be our pleasure to render that service.

Yours in Christian Fellowship,

THE PASTORS OF THE TWIN CITIES.

THE ILLINOIS STUDENT UNION

The Illinois Union Greeting to the Class of 1916

"Fellow students, the Union welcomes you into our midst and hope you will join with us in creating Illinois spirit and the best feeling of one student toward another.

The Union is endeavoring to become acquainted with every phase of the student body and their interests and to help solve their problems. To attain this end it is the aim of the Union to secure a Union building for the sole use of the students.

In the meantime we are not idle and each year marks an increase in our widening circle of interests. This year we will conduct an information bureau in connection with registration and hope you will feel free to entrust in us your problems.

We make your interests ours and expect you to get behind us and help to follow out the principals of our motto:

The Union of Hearts,
The Union of Hands,
The Union of Illinois Men Forever."

The University of Illinois Fall Home Coming

The Third Annual Home Coming will occur on November 15, 16 and 17, 1912. This event was instigated two years ago and proved a complete success. Hundreds of alumni from all over the country returned at this time, which was one of jollification and renewal of old friendships.

The Illinois-Chicago football game occurs on the 16th of November. This will be the deciding game for the Conference championship. There will be the Freshman-Sophomore pushball contest, fall handicap, girls' college of nonsense, fraternity, club and society banquets, initiations and dances, and in case we win the football game, a big celebration. Be there yourself and have a couple of friends enjoy the good time with you.

The Hospital Association

No young man expects to be sick when he is at college, but the facts are hundreds are prevented every year for a longer or shorter period from attending classes on account of illness. The Students' Hospital Association provides a cheap insurance, and every student should be a member. The Association is a voluntary one of students under the direction of a Faculty committee consisting of the Dean of Men, the Dean of Measles and love are most dangerous when they come late in life.

Women, and the Assistant Dean of the College of Engineering. Each member pays one dollar each semester and the Association undertakes to provide hospital facilities consisting of a bed in the students' ward of the Burnham Hospital, board, and nursing during illness. The student pays his own doctor's bill. It is not alone that the student receives attention free of charge; he is better taken care of, recovers sooner, and is in every way safer than when treated in his own room. No student should fail to join.

THE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

A. M. Morris, '13, President

All students, faculty and alumni are eligible to membership in the Athletic Association. The membership dues are seven dollars ($7). Members are admitted to all athletic events free of charge excepting only the Interscholastic Circus. This makes an average of about sixteen cents a game for all games scheduled. Memberships may be procured at places of registration and receipts will be given which may be exchanged later for a coupon ticket book and a pin.

The officers of the association are president, secretary and the managers of football, baseball and inter-class athletics. The athletic Board of Control is composed of three members of the faculty, three alumni and the officers of the Association.

All officers of the Association and the various managers of teams are chosen by competition. This competition is open to any student who has full sophomore standing. All candidates must write an examination which covers all phases of athletic activity, after which those whose examination papers, scholastic standing and general character and ability are most acceptable to the Board of Control are selected for competition. This competition lasts throughout the sophomore year. At the end of the sophomore year the managers of the various sports report the record of each candidate to the Board of Control. From the records submitted the Board of Control appoints two Junior assistants in each sport. In the same manner two assistants to the president are chosen. These assistants continue in competition throughout their junior year, at the end of which time the Board of Control appoints the best man to the position of manager of his respective sport or president of the Association as the case may be. Record of work in the department, character, general ability and scholastic standing are the considerations in making the choice. The unsuccessful assistant may become manager of freshman varsity in his sport if he so desires.

In class athletics a team represents each class in each college in the more important sports, thus making a total of six teams representing each class in the various sports. This makes it possible for practically every student who wishes to take part in athletics to do so, and it is the hope of the athletic management that an increasing number shall come out and try for the class teams.

VARSIITY "I"

The Varsity "I" is awarded to men in the several sports as follows:

FOOTBALL—Playing in three conference games, at least one full half in two of the games, or playing in two games a year for three years.

G. HUFF

BASEBALL—Playing in seven conference games. Pitchers, five innings in two games and part of another.

TRACK—Ten points against two different conference teams, one point in the conference meet, or a first or second in the indoor conference meet.

BASKETBALL—Twelve full halves against conference teams.

SWIMMING—Ten points against two conference teams, or a first or a second in the indoor conference meet.

WATER POLO—Three full halves and part of a fourth game, or a full game on a team winning the championship at the indoor conference meet.

"I" caps may be awarded to men not meeting the full requirements for a sweater.

THE WOMAN'S LEAGUE

Officers

President Gertrude Elliott, '12
 Vice-President Mabel McIntyre, '12
 Secretary Ruth Halliday, '14
 Treasurer Edith Sendenburg, '12

The Woman's League is an organization of all the girls in the University. A girl becomes a member of the League by virtue of her registration. The aim of the League is to bring the girls into a closer relationship and make every girl feel that every other girl, in the institution, is her friend. In order to aid in bringing these things to pass, parties have been planned for the following dates:

Saturday, October 12.
 Saturday, November 9.
 Saturday, December 7.
 Saturday, January 11.
 Saturday, February 15.
 Saturday, April 12, the Annual

The League has furnished a room in the Julia F. Burnham Hospital, which girls may occupy, free of charge, by joining the Hospital Association. It also provides magazines for the reading room of the Woman's Building. The Woman's League Loan Fund, consisting of over $400, has recently been turned over to the University and is governed by the same regulations as the Snyder Loan Fund. However, the treasurer of the League has charge of a small cash loan fund which is available to any girl in case of an emergency. Application must be made through Dean Fawcett. The annual meeting of the Woman's League will be held March 7, 1913, at which time reports will be given by the treasurer, secretary and various committees, and the newly elected officers will be installed.

A man to have friends must show himself friendly.

The League has also drawn up the following set of resolutions, which it considers advisable for every girl to become acquainted with and follow:

Resolutions

The Woman's League of the University of Illinois, wishing to express the general sentiment which prevails among its members concerning certain matters of custom and tradition:

Resolves, That strolling on the south campus, or in other unfrequented places, after dark, is unwise.

Resolves, That going on the street alone after dark is to be avoided whenever possible.

Resolves, That as a rule, callers shall be received only on one night between Sunday and Friday, and that they should not be entertained after 10 o'clock at night.

Resolves, That no member of this League shall knowingly attend a social affair where there is no chaperon present.

Resolves, That the practice of patronizing restaurants at night is to be condemned.

Resolves, That the members of the League shall leave Crystal Lake by 10 o'clock at night, except for special affairs.

Resolves, That sentiment be created against cheap vaudeville.

Visit a literary society and get in line for an invitation to join.

FRATERNITIES

The Greek Letter Fraternity system, peculiar to the colleges of the United States, marks its beginning in the organization of the Phi Beta Kappa Society (now honorary) at William and Mary College in 1776. The fraternities are national organizations, having chapters in the various colleges. The object of these societies is primarily social, but their activities include many other phases of college life.

Membership in a fraternity is somewhat restricted; and an invitation to join always originates with the fraternity. If the fraternities desire your fellowship they will seek you. Until then the details of their activities need not be of any interest to you and the less you ask about them or comment upon them, as a newcomer, the wiser you are. While the aims and purposes of these societies at large are similar the local chapters of the several fraternities in a college are almost always found to differ greatly. Some pay more attention to the moral character of their members, others to scholarship, athletics or literary attainments. Others emphasize social graces, wealth or fashion. No man can join a fraternity without being strongly influenced by it. Before accepting an invitation to join any fraternity, therefore, you would be wise to consult professors, alumni and unprejudiced undergraduates in reference to the policy and standing of the local chapter. If not solicited to become a member of any fraternity do not consider yourself neglected and do not become embittered. Not to be a "frat" man is not necessarily a reproach. To be known as an "anti-frat" and a "kicker," however, is a reproach and an inconvenience.

Make more acquaintances than chums the first week.

PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL

For several years the necessity of some kind of organization to regulate interfraternity affairs has been felt by those directly connected with the fraternities at Illinois. After much discussion several senior fraternity men got together and laid plans for a permanent council or governing body known as the Pan-Hellenic Council. This Council, which is made up of a representative from each of the recognized national fraternities, has the supervision over interfraternity athletics, recognition of new fraternities, and rules in regard to rushing and pledging, and also controls other affairs relating to national fraternities at the University of Illinois.

The following rule has been adopted in regard to the initiation of freshmen:

No freshman may become a member of any fraternity until the end of the first semester, and then not until he has procured from the Dean of Men a statement certifying that he has successfully completed at least eleven (11) hours of the work in which he was registered.

Ask somebody to tell you about the Geneva Conference.

A student entering the University the second semester, or a student failing in the first semester requirements, may be initiated on or after the first of May, provided he procures from the Dean of Men a statement certifying that he is reported satisfactory in eleven (11) hours of the work in which he is registered.

No student entering from another college may be initiated into any fraternity until he has procured from the Dean of Men a statement certifying that he has credit in not less than twenty-five (25) hours of University work.

The membership of this Council consists of the following national fraternities:

ATHLETICS

Athletic training is well provided for by the physical training department. There are opportunities for class work in gymnasium and swimming, and also for special apparatus work in the gymnasium. Teams are organized for playing basketball, and from these are chosen the class and varsity teams. In the fall, the gymnasium work consists of outdoor games, basketball, hockey, tennis, volley ball and lawn bowling on the girls' play ground west of the Auditorium.

During the winter, a championship series of basketball games is held in the gymnasium between the various class teams. In the spring, gymnasium and swimming exhibits are held.

The Women's Athletic Association is composed of those girls who have shown special ability in gymnasium work, in basketball and in swimming.

The first day of the annual Interscholastic program in May, is Woman's Day. In the early evening the Maypole Dance is given on Illinois Field by the gymnasium girls under the direction of the faculty of the physical training department.

Profanity is the sign of a poverty stricken vocabulary.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

There are three women's literary societies at Illinois, Alethenal, Illiola and Athenean. New members are chosen from the freshmen class at the beginning of the second semester. Scholarship, musical or literary ability and an interest in literary affairs are among the requirements for membership. An invitation to join originates with the society. The programs are held at 4 o'clock on Fridays in the society halls on the fifth floor of Main Hall. Visitors are welcome at these meetings.

WOMAN'S BUILDING

There is one building at Illinois which was erected primarily for the women—the Woman's Building. The north wing is occupied by the laboratories and recitation rooms of the Household Science Department. In the central portion is the swimming pool, the shower baths and the gymnasium. In the south wing there are large and comfortable parlors and verandas where the girls may rest and study. On the first floor of this wing is the office of the Dean of Women, Mrs. Mary E. Fawcett. Her office hours are from 9 to 12 a. m. and from 2 to 4 p. m. daily except Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Fawcett wishes to become personally acquainted with all the girls in the University and will be glad to meet them at her office or at her home, 805 W. California avenue, Urbana.

Keep far enough away from the moral boundaries that you cannot get over and back in a night.

SUGGESTIONS FOR GIRLS

Be sure to show your interest in the Young Women's Christian Association by becoming a member and attending its meetings.

Call on the Dean of Women at her office in the Woman's Building and become acquainted with her.

The Woman's League Resolutions should be read and followed. Every girl is a member of this League.

Bring your church letter with you and affiliate with some church. The best of girls go to church.

Spend your leisure moments at the Association House, where you may read, and rest, or get acquainted with other girls.

Buy an "Illinois" song book and learn the songs of the University. Songs are an important part of convocations and ball games.

The General Secretary will be only too glad to tell you what to do, so come to the Association House for information.

Read the Y. W. C. A. notices in the Daily Illini and on the bulletin boards.

Join a Bible and a Mission Study class.

The library is used for study and quiet must be observed there.

Join the Hospital Association, and be cared for if taken ill.

Much of success depends upon the girl you chum with; choose her carefully.

Subscribe for the Daily Illini; do not read your neighbor's copy.

Keep the Morning Watch.

Be ready at all times to help in any way that you can, especially by assisting on committees for the Woman's League and the Y. W. C. A.

Many a man finds the key to the situation after some other fellow has picked the lock.

DON'TS FOR GIRLS

Don't fail to call at the Y. W. C. A. building as soon as you reach the University.

Don't forget that the Association girls are your friends and wish to do all in their power to help you.

Don't go to Harris' late at night.

Don't be afraid of the professors—they are human.

Don't forget to use the right hand stairway in Main Hall; the left is reserved for the men.

Don't scream on the campus or in the halls; girls should be seen and not heard.

Don't sit on the Senior Bench.

Don't fail to read the Daily "Illini."

Don't cheat in exams., nor encourage another girl to cheat by telling her answers.

Don't wear a path across the campus. Walks are made to walk upon.

Don't snub the one who sits next you in class.

Don't forget to subscribe to the Y. W. C. A. budget.

Don't be late to class.

Don't take books from the library without having them charged.

Don't waste time; you will be glad when exams. come if your work is all done.

Don't fail to go to Sunday school, for it is well worth your time.

Don't plan any work for 4 o'clock Thursday. Save that hour for the regular Y. W. meeting.

A good way to deal with debts is not to contract them.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

There are three literary societies for men, Philomathean, Adelpic and Ionian. An invitation to join originates with the society, but they choose their members from the visitors who attend their regular meetings and every one interested in debating or oratory should visit them in their halls.

MA-WAN-DA

The Ma-wan-da is the senior honorary society, made up of from twelve to twenty of the most representative seniors. The method of choosing new members is singular and affords one of the most dramatic spectacles of the year.

THE STAR COURSE

The Star Course is supported by the Adelpic and Philomathean literary societies. Each organization elects a manager annually and the two managers work conjointly in planning the course, selecting the talent and conducting the general business management. The purpose of the managers is to secure for the University, Champaign and Urbana public a high class of musical and literary entertainment, which is ordinarily lacking in the small town. Only the best talent is selected and consequently it merits the support of the student body. The proceeds go to the support of the two literary societies.

PUBLICATIONS

The Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations annually publish the Students' Handbook, and furnish copies for the students. It aims to give all kinds of useful information.

The Illini is the student daily paper, and has become a real necessity. Every student should make arrangements to have access to an Illini.

The Illio is the college annual published every spring by the junior class. It summarizes the year's history and gives information about all organizations of the University.

The Illinois Agriculturist is a magazine published monthly by the Agricultural Club and devoted to the interests of the farmer.

The Technograph appears in the spring and is published by the Association of Engineering Societies. It is scientific in nature, and valuable literature for an engineer.

The Illinois Magazine is an illustrated literary monthly of fifty pages published by a staff of undergraduates. Its purpose is the reproduction of the best in student composition, with which it combines lighter features and occasional faculty articles. All students interested in the literary activities of the University should subscribe.

The Alumni Quarterly is a publication edited by a staff of alumni of the University, and an undergraduate assistant. It is devoted to the interests of the alumni and serves to keep them in touch with their Alma Mater.

The Students' Directory, giving a complete list of faculty and students with their local addresses, is published under student management early in the fall and is freely distributed.

The Bulletin is issued fortnightly by the University for the purpose of furnishing the public with authoritative information as to the progress of the University. It is sent free to all editors who desire it.

The Siren is the new comic monthly which gives opportunity for budding humorists and cartoonists to express themselves through its facetious pages.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS

UNIVERSITY HALL, or Main Hall, with its two towers, is situated in the center of the group of buildings on the south side of Green street. The College of Literature and Arts occupies most of this hall.

THE LIBRARY, a beautiful stone building, stands northwest from University Hall.

THE COLLEGE OF LAW occupies the building next east of University Hall.

NATURAL HISTORY HALL stands northeast of the Law Building.

South from the Law Building is located the CHEMISTRY BUILDING.

The College of Agriculture occupies the magnificent AGRICULTURAL GROUP, just south of the Chemistry Building.

Still further south stands the OBSERVATORY.

Opposite the Agricultural Building, and south of the Main Hall, is the WOMAN'S BUILDING, a typical colonial structure, housing the Women's Gymnasium, Household Science Department, Parlors and Rest Rooms.

Commanding the open court between the Woman's Building and the Agricultural Building is the University AUDITORIUM.

Immediately south of the Woman's Building is the new LINCOLN HALL. Lincoln Hall will contain the upper classes of the College of Literature and Arts, and the Graduate School.

From the north side of Green street ENGINEERING HALL faces the group already described.

The PHYSICS BUILDING is east of Engineering Hall, facing the south.

North of the Engineering Hall and fronting on Burrill avenue are, first, the LABORATORY OF APPLIED MECHANICS, with the University PUMPING STATION in its rear; second, the ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING LABORATORY AND POWER PLANT, back of which stands the CENTRAL HEATING STATION, beyond which in turn stands the MECHANICAL ENGINEERING LABORATORY, and the new POWER PLANT; third, the METAL SHOP; and fourth, the WOOD SHOP, in the rear of which is the FOUNDRY.

Across Springfield avenue from the Shops, and facing the north end of Burrill avenue, is the ARMORY.

The MEN'S GYMNASIUM is directly west of the ARMORY.

The TRANSPORTATION BUILDING, fronting on Matthews avenue and directly east of the Mechanical Engineering Laboratory, and the COMMERCE BUILDING, directly south of the Library, are now under construction.

The smaller buildings of the University are: the President's house on Green street, opposite the Library; the Green-house, just north of the President's house; south on Burrill avenue, the Veterinary Clinic Building; the Experiment Station, Warehouse, the Dairy and other barns.

Besides the beautiful lawns and flower beds lying all about the buildings on both sides of Green street, there are the girls' athletic field and tennis courts, and the experimental farm, all lying south of the buildings and the Forestry, covering about thirteen acres to the southeast. North of Green street on Burrill avenue, opposite the Metal Shop, are the men's tennis courts. Lying north of the Armory and Gymnasium, between Springfield and University avenues, is the Military Parade Ground and "Illinois" Field.

The University has recently purchased twenty acres of land between First street and the Illinois Central railroad. This is to be used as a general athletic training field, and for class games that cannot be played on "Illinois" Field or the South Campus.

RAILROADS

The University can be reached by four railroads. Champaign is on the main line of the Illinois Central from Chicago to New Orleans. The Big Four line from Peoria to Indianapolis passes through both Champaign and Urbana. A short line of the Wabash connects the Twin Cities with its main Buffalo-St. Louis line at Sidney. The Danville-Springfield-St. Louis line of the Illinois Traction System also passes through both cities. Since the University is between the two cities, tickets may be bought to either one.

Don't try to look or act like a "dead game sport." Such a spectacle may be amusing, but you can ill afford to be laughed at.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

*Orange and Blue.Illinois

By thy rivers gently flowing,
 Illinois, Illinois,
 O'er thy prairies verdant growing,
 Illinois, Illinois,
 Comes an echo on the breeze
 Rustling through the leafy trees,
 And its mellow tones are these,
 Illinois, Illinois.

When you heard your country calling,
 Illinois, Illinois,
 When the shot and shell were falling,
 Illinois, Illinois,
 When the southern host withdrew,
 Pitting Gray against the Blue,
 There were none more brave than you,
 Illinois, Illinois.

Not without thy wond'rous story,
 Illinois, Illinois,
 Can be writ the nation's glory,
 Illinois, Illinois,
 On the record of thy years,
 Abraham Lincoln's name appears,
 Grant and Logan and our tears,
 Illinois, Illinois.

Cigarettes are not considered brain food
 in these quarters.

Illinois Loyalty

We're loyal to you, Illinois,
 We're "Orange and Blue," Illinois,
 We'll back you to stand
 'Gainst the best in the land,
 For we know you have sand, Illinois,
 So crack out that ball, Illinois,
 We're backing you all, Illinois,
 Our team is our fame-protector;
 On! boys, for we expect a
 Vict'ry from you, Illinois.

CHEERS.

Chehee, cheha, cheha-ha-ha!
 Chehee, cheha, cheha-ha-ha!
 Illinois, Illinois, Illinois!

Fling out that dear old flag of
 Orange and Blue,
 Lead on you sons and daughters,
 Fighting for you;
 Like men of old, on giants
 Placing reliance,
 Shouting defiance—
 Oskey-wow-wow!

Amid the broad green fields that nourish
 our land,
 For honest learning and for labor we stand,
 And unto thee we pledge our heart and hand,
 Dear Alma Mater, Illinois.

My IllinoisCHORUS.

My Illinois,—My Illinois,
 The pride of the golden west:—
 Old Illinois,—Dear Illinois,— Where wave the fragrant fields I love the best:—
 My Illinois,—Dear Illinois,—
 I hear thy rivers gently call.
 There are other skies as blue, still my heart is ever true
 To my own, my Illinois.

Oskee-Wow-Wow

Old Princeton yells her tiger,
 Wisconsin her varsity,
 And they give the same old Rah! Rah! Rah!
 At each University;
 But the yell that always thrills me,
 And fills my heart with joy,
 Is the good old Oskee-Wow-Wow,
 That they yell at Illinois.

CHORUS.

Oskee-Wow-Wow-Illinois,
 Our eyes are all on you,
 Oskee-Wow-Wow-Illinois,
 Wave your Orange and your Blue,
 Rah! Rah!
 When the team trots out before you,
 Every man stand up and yell,
 Back the team and give Chicago ———,
 Oskee-Wow-Wow-Illinois.

Teddy Roosevelt may be famous,
 And his name you often hear,
 But its heroes on the football field,
 Each college man holds dear;
 We think with pride of Roberts,
 Artie Hall and Heavy, too,
 Oskee-Wow-Wow for the wearers
 Of the Orange and the Blue.

Appreciate the unsullied cleanness of "Illinois" athletics and help to preserve it.

Sunset Song

A thousand flags are waving
 For the heroes of the field,
 A thousand voices shouting
 For the men that never yield,
 The Autumn sun is setting
 Now in glory in the west,
 'Tis flinging forth its banners
 In the colors we love best.
 See how its rays up-shooting,
 Join with the sky's pure hue
 To signal forth the victory
 Of the Orange and the Blue.

CHORUS.

O, the Orange and the Blue,
 To you we'll e'er be true;
 While life remain we'll pledge again
 Dear Illinois, to you.

An old man sits and ponders,
 While the evening shadows grow,
 At close of day, till in the West
 The Heavens are all aglow;
 Once more those flags are waving,
 Once more the cheer is raised,
 As the old man lives in fancy
 O'er his dear old college days.
 For he has seen at set of sun,
 What in his youth he knew,
 O, Alma Mater, Illinois!
 Thy Orange and thy Blue.

Hail to thee, Alma Mater!
 Wherever we may be,
 Within the pleasant homeland,
 Or beyond the storm-swept sea.
 From care and toil we pause to rest
 When the day's long work is done,
 To gaze upon thy blazon
 As the setting of the sun.
 And all thy sons and daughters,
 Their love for thee renew,
 Beholding in the evening sky
 The Orange and the Blue.

Cheer Illini

There's a sound in my ear;
 It's a cheer, it's a cheer, and I hear it all the time.
 It's from men who are true to the Orange
 and Blue,
 Backing the Illini nine.
 It's not whom we meet,
 Not vict'ry, defeat,
 That really means so much to me,
 But my heart throbs with joy as I back
 Illinois
 And that grand old varsity.

CHORUS.

Then cheer that good old Illini nine,
 Spur it on to victory.
 Let's give them nine; men, cheer all the time—
 We'll show our loyalty.
 Then fight, fight! for it's vict'ry or die;
 Keep that Orange and Blue waving high.
 All you good Illini, cheer all the time,
 Cheer that Illini nine.

Can you hear that big band?
 See those stands? Ev'ry man is singing that grand name.
 That's spirit, you see—
 That's loyalty—
 And wins Illini fame.
 That's why they fight with glorious might,
 That's why that all I ask for mine
 Is to sing, hat in hand, to the best in the land,
 And to cheer that Illini nine.

Be courteous to visitors.

SOME SUGGESTIONS

Every man who comes to college could carry his work if he would. As it is, fully one man in three fails in something. You have come to college presumably to pursue a definite work, to carry a certain course. You will be materially helped in this by giving attention to certain details.

1. Get at your work at once. Never put off until tomorrow what should be done today. If you get behind you are in danger, for you will never have more time than you have today.

2. Plan your work. Have a time to do things, and hold to your schedule, even if you must sometimes omit the show or the ball game.

3. Stay in your rooms and work every study evening—you'll have less regret at the end of the semester.

4. Learn concentration. It is better to give your whole time to your work for an hour than to fool around three hours pretending to study.

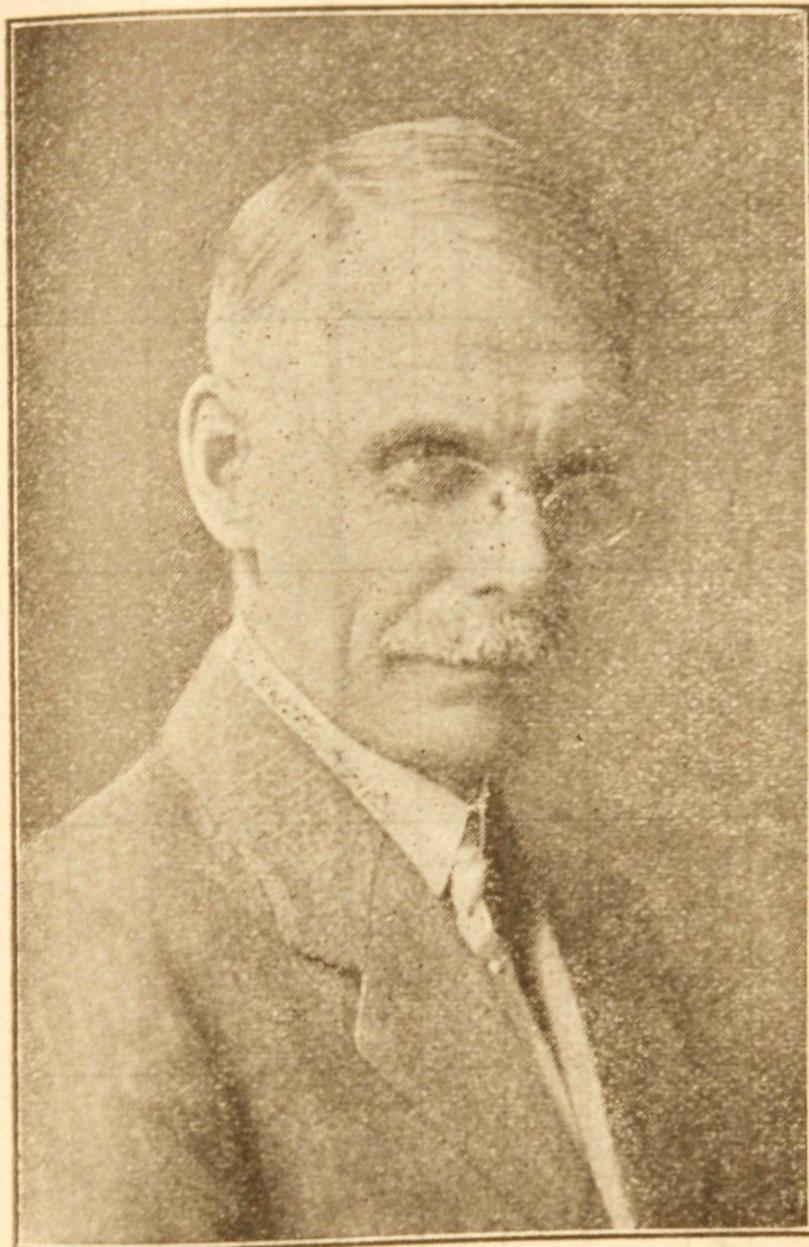

5. Choose your friends slowly. More men are ruined through bad associations than through any other means.

6. If you are puzzled about any matter, or undecided as to any line of action, do not hesitate to ask advice. That's the way we all learn.

Sincerely yours,

THOMAS ARKLE CLARK,
Dean of Men.
